

Fancy Air-Mail Art

used by Italian soldiers on foreign lands during the Fascist era.

The fragments shown below are from the stamp displays in the “Colonies” and in the “Military Postmarks” links of this website.

Italy in the Spanish Civil War

The fragments shown here are from the stamp displays in the “Colonies” and in the “Military Postmarks” links of this website.

Considering Italy's warrior activities over much of the Mediterranean lands during Mussolini's Fascist 1930's, the arrows depicted in these air mail stamps represent more than just air mail.

ABOVE: Sheet of Italian 1930 Air Mail stamps.

BY AIR MAIL
PAR AVION

BELOW: Each of these 15 cropped air-mail art (below) originated from letter-covers mailed between André Frodel and Gogliardo Grassi – Both are protagonists in “The War of Lions.”

